

Given 2 red beads, 2 blue beads, 1 yellow bead, and 1 green bead, how many different necklaces can be made?

Notice that the following necklaces are the same because when you flip over the first you get the second.

Also the following necklaces are the same because the green bead has only been slid around the string.

